First International

E-Mental Health Summit 2009

14, 15 and 16 October AMSTERDAM The Netherlands

Online support for young people with a family member affected by mental illness

E-Mental Health
Summit 2009

E-Mental Health Summit 2009

Introduction

User statistics

Test scores

E-mail correspondence

E-mail content

(unpublished data)

Conclusions

Adolescent Children of Parents with Mental Illness (COPMI)

Adolescent Children of Parents with an Addiction Disorder

Brothers and Sisters of a young patiënt

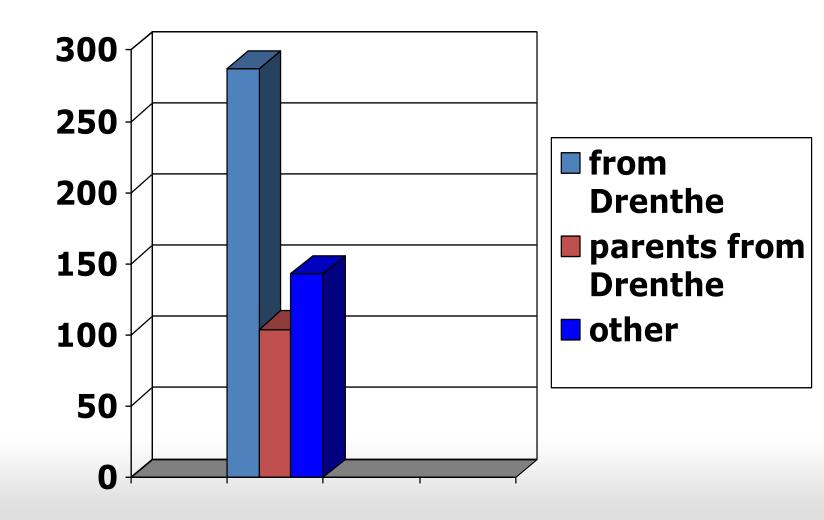

Origin of visitors

E-Mental Health Summit 2009

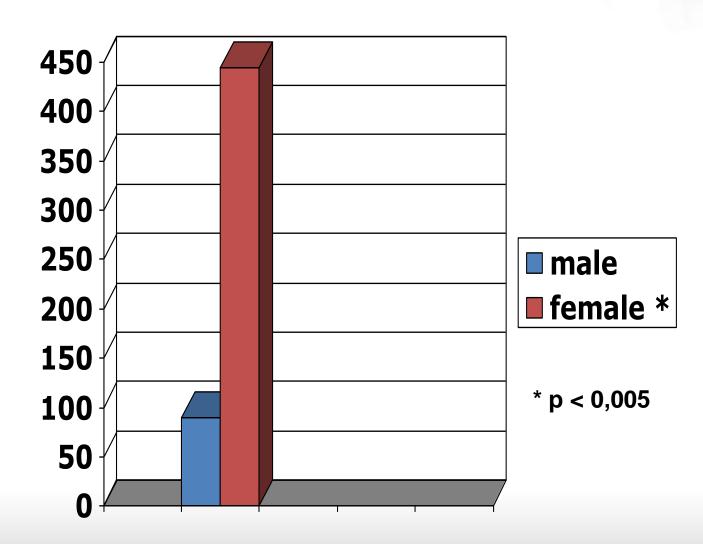

(N = 534)

$$(N = 534)$$

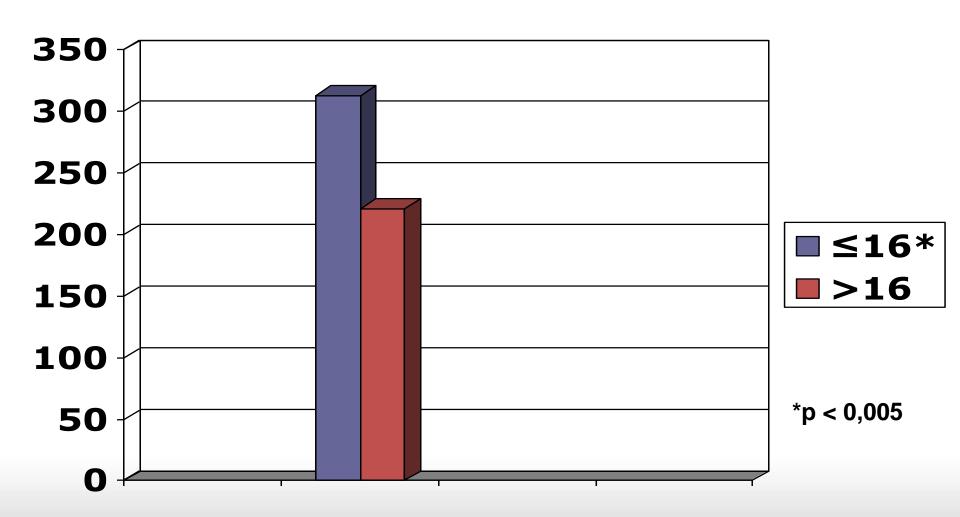

Young or old?

E-Mental Health Summit 2009

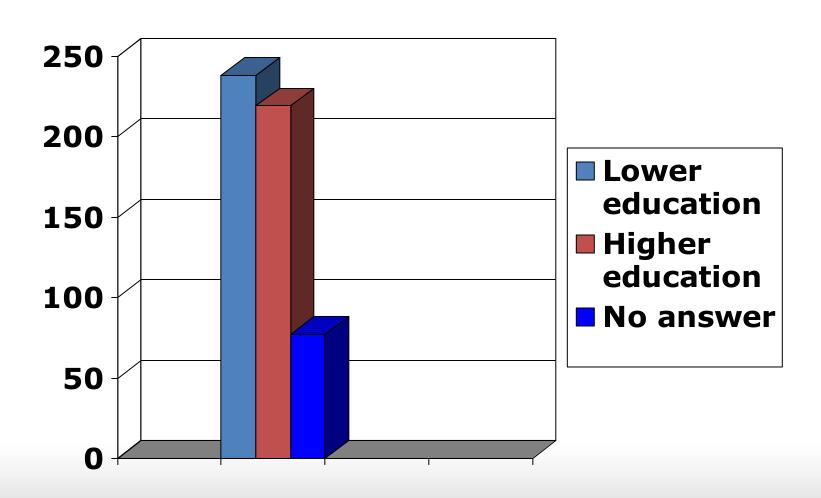

$$(N = 534)$$

$$(N = 534)$$

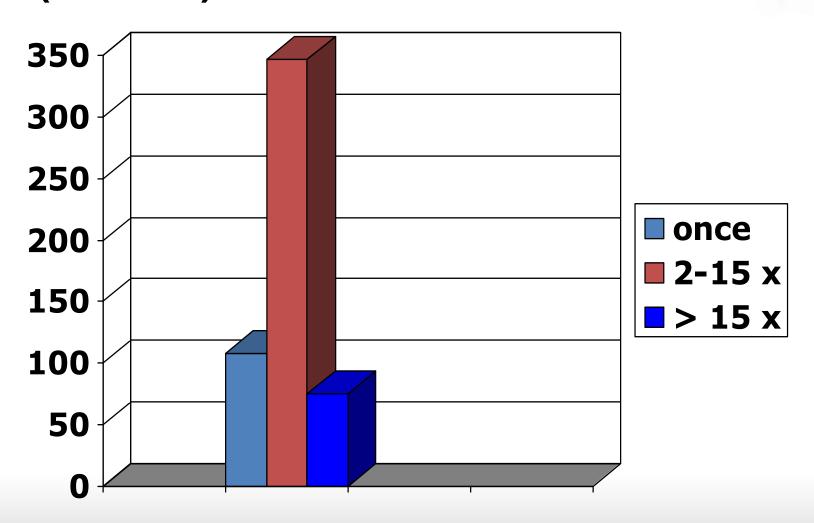

Number of visits

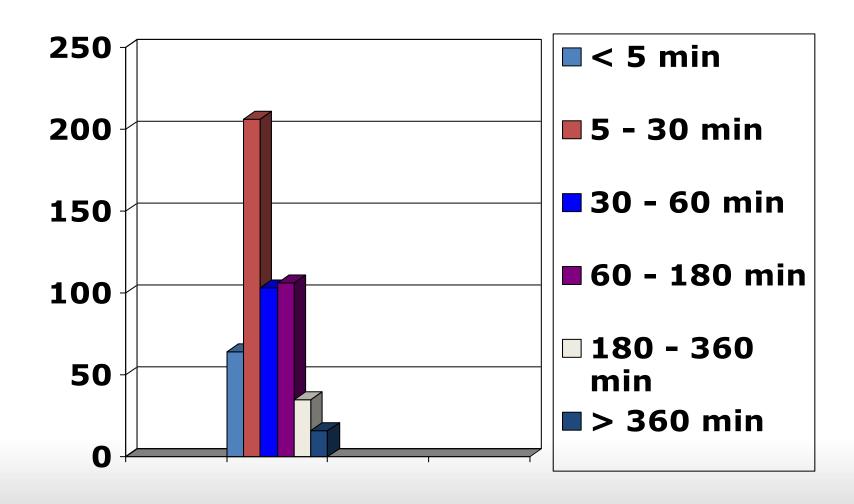

$$(N = 534)$$

(N = 530)

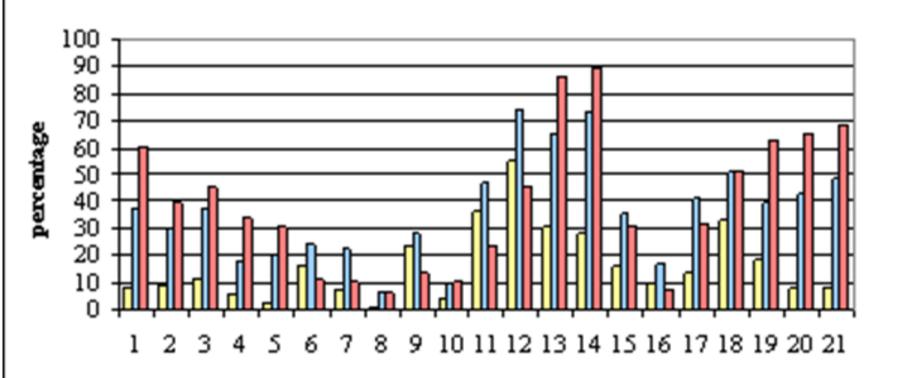

KIVPA scores

(N = 186)

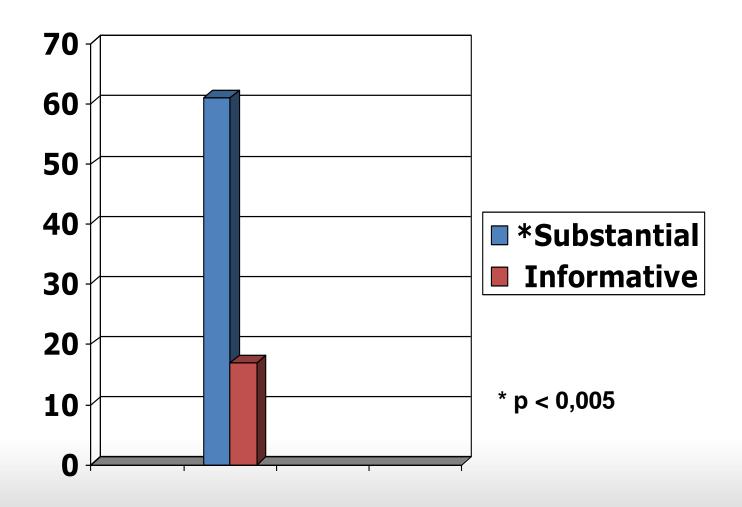

subjects

$$(N = 78)$$

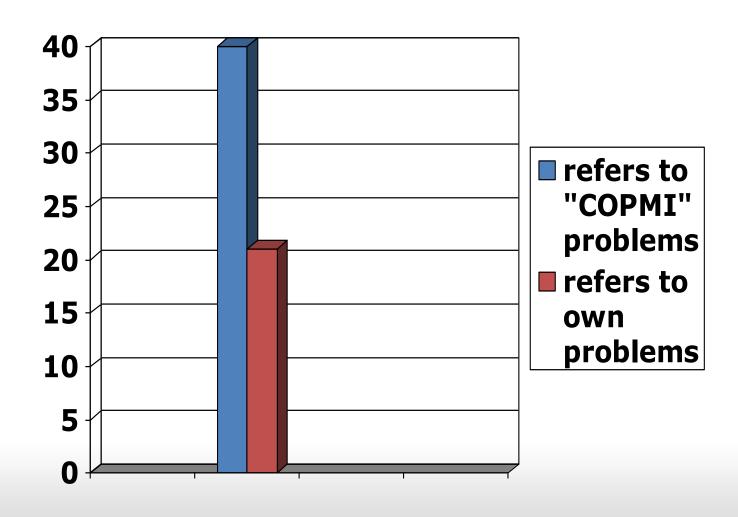

kind of problems

$$(N=61)$$

With the development of Survivalkid.nl, we appear to have accomplished our goal of expanding the range of support for the target group.

Anonymity Contact with peers

Low profile, but trustworthy contact with professionals

Variety
Attractiveness
Interactivity

Petra Windmeijer,

Roelie – Wieke Postema,

Yolanda Burger (Studio Joyo, Amsterdam),

Hilde Goeree (KIVPA statistics),

.....and yoú......for your attention!

Louisa Drost
Sjoerd Sytema,
Pim Cuijpers
Gerard Schippers

Louisa.Drost@ggzdrenthe.nl